Henry Dixon Will

Henry H.Dixon settlement in 1928. The widow Sarah Jane Bartee got her dower of about 50 dollars. Then about 200 dollars was divided among 15 heirs named in his will. About 13.50 each. One share of 13.50 for Gargettie Trammel. C M Dixon (a son) was the executor. He gave money to Clerk of Superior Court (CSC) to distribute. In 1940 following some strange law, the clerk gave the money meant for Gargettie to UNC. I think this would be University of North Carolina. One share meant for John Lloyd Seals (see notes under Lloyd Seal) was also given to CSC. CSC gave the money to him. The biggest expense in the estate was 100 dollars for the funeral.

Notes

Corrie Evelyn was a twin to Arro Agness. Arro only lived 2 months.

6-13-2003

Interview with Corrie's Daughters Lillie Mae McAbee and Aurie Evelyn (Gunnie) Williams, Linden Alabama. At this time Aurie is living with Her daughter Gayle Williams Horn in Linden Alabama. Lillie Mae built an apartment onto the home of a niece (one of Gayle's daughters) and is living in Demoplis, Alabama.

Lillie Mae states this has been an adjustment coming to the "country" from the city of Spartanburg, S.C. where she has lived since School Days.

Lillie Mae will be 84 yrs on August 26,2003.

Aurie Evelyn was 88 yrs on March 15,2003.

Both ladies are in remarkably good health and their mind and memory is very clear, especially for Lillie Mae.

Lillie May still owns Her car and travels to visit friend and relatives. She was planning a trip to Washington DC (flying) in a few days.

Aurie stated she does not drive....She said,"with so many people aroud to drive her why bother."

I met with them for about 2 1/2 hours. They told me that they remembered my grandmother, their Aunt Mary Gargettie Dixon Seal Trammel.

They shared with me the same story I have heard from so many children and grandchildren of Gargettie's sblings. Everyone was upset that her husband, Oeland Trammell was so mean to Mary Gargettie....and had her committed to the State Mental Hospital, where she spent the last 30 years of her life. Lillie and Aurie said they remember the Day that the "Police" came to their home and got Mary Gargettie.

They do not remember why Mary Gargettie was at their home, but they both do remember the police taking her away and she was begging Corrie their mother to 'please" not let them take her. Naturally, Corrie could not stop them her husband Oeland Trammel had signed the papers for her to be committed. They said they remember their parents going to the hospital in Columbia South Carolina to Visit Gargettie.

Family Group Sheet

They thought Oeland Trammel, Gargettie's husband drank and had women friends.

Lillie and Aurie said they remember their mother's brother, Carson Dixon, coming to the orphanage to visit them and taking them to his home for visits.

They both said their father came to visit them at the orphanage and wanted them to come and live with him especially after he remarried, but they decided since they were in school there in The city of Spartanburg and doing good in school they wanted to stay at the orphanage and finish school. All the Children in the orphanage finished high school.

They could not remember the name of the orphanage but it was located at the "end" of Pine Street, Spartanburg, S.C. at that time.

Pine Street has now been extended and the orphanage is no longer there.[William Dixon 10-22-2006.FTW]
